Hi [REDACTED]

b6 -2

Sorry I took so long to get these names back to you. I got permissions from several of the employees, however, I decided it may be easier just to come up with names for every character...so attached is the story (I've made some corrections to it from the original version), and I've replaced the names with pseudonyms. Also, I have attached at the very end a chart of who has been given what name. Thank you again. [REDACTED]

Attached is the draft of my story that I would like to eventually have published. For the most part, I think that my story can help others who are going through or have gone through similar issues. I have not come up with a title for it, but I think [REDACTED] may be the most fitting. I also need to work on the ending, but I wanted to get approval or find out what I need to change in order to get permission from the Bureau to publish. I will also consult an editor/publisher regarding using the names, as I'm sure there are laws regarding permission from the individuals who I have mentioned. Again, though, you are the first step, so thank you for taking the time to review this.
